DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 19 April 2006 has been entered.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney Bala Sundararajan on 16 August 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In The Claims

In claim 1, line 13, after "sound outlet aperture of the housing and", delete ~~-the--~~.

In claim 1, line 17 (the last line), after "aperture of the housing", insert a period.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a nonobvious improvement over the invention patented in Patent No. 5,844,998 (Nageno).

With respect to independent claim 1 an telephonic interview was conducted on 15 August 2006 with Bala Sundararajan,, in which it was concluded that Figure 1 should be labeled as Prior Art. Furthermore, the limitations "wherein the acoustic resistor is arranged inside the housing with respect to the front volume behind the place of the sound outlet aperture of the housing and with respect to the front volume behind the place of the reproduction system" was discussed. It was concluded that the Nageno reference does not teach an acoustic resistor situated in the manner disclosed in these claims.

And, for these reasons in conjunction with the other functional language recited in the claims, claims 1 and 3 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
